

NATIONAL OFFICERS

ACROSS THE COUNTRY

NPMHU National Officers attend signing of the Social Security Fairness Act

◀ National President Paul Hogrogian, President of the United States Joseph Biden, and National Secretary-Treasurer Kevin P. Tabarus.

National Secretary-Treasurer Kevin P. Tabarus, Former Senator (D-OH) Sherrrod Brown, and National President Paul Hogrogian ▶

Financial Management Seminar

The National Office held a comprehensive Financial Management Seminar at LiUNA Headquarters in Washington, DC from March 4-5, 2025. The Financial Management Seminar is conducted every three years. The two-day training sessions include presentations and group discussions on a wide variety of topics related to financial administration at the Local Union level. Topics included were the National and Local Constitutional fiduciary duties and responsibilities of the Local President, Treasurer and Executive Board Members; Internal Revenue Service and Department of Labor reporting requirements; budgeting; financial statements; records management; annual audits; payroll; and more.

The following trainers contributed to the success of the Financial Management Seminar; National Secretary-Treasurer Kevin Tabarus, General Counsel Matt Clash-Drexler, Comptroller Keanna Whitlock, Manager of Membership Services Rachelle Clark, MHBP Executive Director Nina Gallaresi, Legislative & Political Director Katie Maddocks, Manager of IT/Special Projects Noah Giebel, Executive Assistant to the National Officers Ponise Shields and Certified Public Accountants Scott Price and Ashleigh Scott.

National President Paul Hogrogian and LiUNA General Secretary-Treasurer Michael Sabitoni also addressed the attendees.

Thanks to the sixty-eight attendees to the Financial Management Seminar.

